Water...life-giving, refreshing, thirst-quenching.

A healthy soul is critical to leadership in the 21st century, but the demands and pace of life can distract us on our journey.

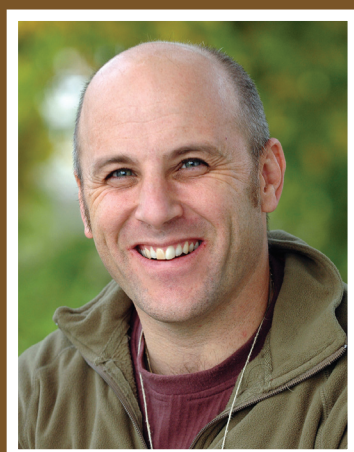

Leading from a Healthy Soul could be described as a check-up on the state of your soul as a leader - a conversation about the deeper things in life.

Come away for a day with live speakers Mark Buchanan and Mindy Caliguire. This interactive event will focus on equipping leaders with spiritual practices that bring life to a thirsty soul.
